Science - Monday	History - Wednesday	Music/French - Thursday
Living Things This week we would like you to go on an invertebrate hunt either in your garden or around your local area! Take photos and explore first hand how invertebrates are formed e.g. do they have an exoskeleton? Are their bodies segmented? How many legs do they have? How many will you find?	Stone Age to Iron Age. Now we have researched and learnt more about the three different periods. It's now time for us to explore what is similar and different between the periods and record our findings. Don't forget to share your learning with us!	Music: https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zcbkcj6/articles/zgxx2nb Watch the video on harmony and complete the activity. French:

You will find worksheets to help you in the science folder on google classroom. Don't forget to share your learning with us! Joseph Coelho

Tuesday 2nd February 2021

Year 3

Joseph Coelho is a multi-award-winning children's author and poet. He won the CLiPPA Poetry Award 2015 for his debut collection, Werewolf Club Rules, and has performed his poetry on Blue Peter and Cbeebies. As well as poetry, Joseph also writes picture books. Luna Loves Library Day was voted one of the World Book Day's top 25 Picture Books to share. Joseph is a staunch supporter of public libraries and a National Poetry Day Ambassador. His latest book Zombierella; Fairy Tales Gone Bad, is out now.

Join Joseph Coelho on a fabulous poetic journey. Find out how he uses memory and the world around him to inspire his poems, and join in with him as he introduces ideas such as rhyme, alliteration and crescendo in a session that will entertain and educate in equal measure.

Join Joseph online on Tuesday 2nd February 2021 at 11.15am.

Rachel Rooney

Thursday 4th February 2021

Year 4

Rachel Rooney is a trained teacher in Primary and Special Education and has taught for many years in a variety of educational settings. Rachel's first poetry collection The Language of Cat won the CLPE Poetry Award and was long-listed for the Carnegie Medal. Her other collections My Life as a Goldfish and A Kid in My Class have both been shortlisted for the CLiPPA. She performs at festivals and for The Children's Bookshow. In 2017 she was the Chair of Judges for the CLiPPA and judged the Betjeman Poetry Prize. Rachel visits schools for workshops and lives in Brighton with her two dogs Woody and Buzz.

Join Rachel as she performs poems from her much-loved collections.
